Information on the Program

Work Stipend

10.000 € for the support of artistic development in new media.

The Edith Russ Site for Media Art Stipend lasts for six months (July-December 2009) and cannot be extended. The artist is required to stay in Oldenburg for at least one month during the duration of the stipend. There is an apartment for the artist in the site's guest house, which can be reserved by appointment. The artist will be integrated into the site's activities and required to participate in the site's program for instance with lectures, workshops, artist discussions etc. The dates and forms of these presentations will be set by the artist together with the Edith Russ Site for Media Art.

Information on the Edith Russ Site for Media Art

The Edith Russ Site for Media Art supports a broad spectrum of media art such as NetArt, Sound, Video and further innovative projects dedicated to a content-driven analysis of media. This institution is dedicated to addressing current questions on media art on many levels. Exhibitions and series of presentations are regularly given by artists and theorists.
